

Keith Wood graduated with a degree in Forest Biology from Colorado State University in 1986 and went on to study aspen ecology on the West Slope of Colorado, receiving his Master's degree in 1988. Keith worked as an Assistant Resource Forester for the Missouri Department of Conservation from 1988 to 1989 and from 1989 to 2002 worked as City Forester for the City of Westminster, Colorado. Keith also taught Arboriculture at Front Range Community College while City Forester in Westminster. From 2002 to 2018, Keith filled the position of Community Forester with the Colorado State Forest Service (CSFS), including the role of Community Forestry Program Manager for 7 years. In this role, Keith also served as the Executive Administrator of the Colorado Tree Coalition and developed and taught a course on Urban & Community Forestry at Colorado State University in Fort Collins from 2013 to 2022. Keith has been a Certified Arborist since 1995 and a Certified Forester since 2002.